

Ignacio Flores

i.floresbeale@gmail.com

<http://ignacioflores.com>

Born July 13th 1990 in Copiapó, Chile.

INSEAD – Europe Campus

Centre for Wealth Inequality (Of. 2.10)
Bvd. de Constance, 77300 Fontainebleau

Paris School Economics

World Inequality Lab (Of. 5-01)
48, Bvd. Jourdan Paris, 75014

Current Position

Coordinator of studies for Latin America and the Caribbean at the World Inequality Lab, Paris School of Economics; and Postdoctoral Researcher at the Stone Center for the Study of Wealth Inequality, INSEAD.

1 Positions and Training

Oct.2019-Present: Coordinator of studies for Latin America and the Caribbean at the World Inequality Lab (WIL), Paris School of Economics

Feb.2019-Present: Postdoctoral Researcher at the Centre for the Study of Wealth Inequality, INSEAD Europe

2017-2019: Research Fellow at WIL, Paris School of Economics

2014-2019: PhD in Economics at Sorbonne University (Paris 1), Jury: Facundo Alvaredo, François Bourguignon, Emmanuel Flachaire, Jérôme Gauthié, Elvire Guillaud, Julian Messina, Nora Lustig.

2012-2014: Master in Applied Economics at Université Paris 1 Panthéon-Sorbonne

2009-2012: Licence in Economics at Université Paris 1 Panthéon-Sorbonne

2 Research

Refereed Journals

1. Top Incomes in Chile: A Historical Perspective on Income Inequality (1964-2017), with Jorge Atria, Claudia Sanhueza and Ricardo Mayer, Review of Income and Wealth, forthcoming.

Submitted Working Papers

1. Measuring Capital-Labour Shares and Inequality: Increasing Gaps between National Accounts and Micro-data. (Formerly titled “Income Under the Carpet: What Gets Lost Between the Measure of Capital Shares and Inequality”) R & R at the Journal of Economic Inequality
2. The Weight of the Rich: Improving Surveys Using Tax Data, with Thomas Blanchet and Marc Morgan. Submitted to Economica

Work in Progress

1. Latin American Inequality Revisited: What can we Learn from DINA?, (with Mauricio De Rosa and Marc Morgan)
2. Land Inequality and Degradation: A View from Space (with Dylan Glover)
3. An Inventory of Micro-Micro Income Data in Latin America, (with Facundo Alvaredo, Mauricio De Rosa and Marc Morgan)
4. Accounting for Capital and Wealth in Latin America, (Luis Bauluz and Marc Morgan)
5. The Evolution of National Wealth and its Distribution in Chile (1968-2015), (with Pablo Gutiérrez)

3 Teaching and Outreach

Teaching Experience

2014-2016: Financial and Monetary Economics, Teaching Assistant for Professors Jézabel Couppey- Soubeyran and Bruno Tinel at Université Paris 1 Panthéon-Sorbonne. 2nd year of Licence.

2014-2016: Comparative Economics Theory, Teaching Assistant for Professors Michael Assous and Christophe Ramaux. 2nd year of Licence.

Conferences and Presentations

PhD Seminar “Should we care about inequality?” at INSEAD, Fontainebleau, Oct. 2019. Keynote speaker at the Seminario Desigualdad, Economic Commission for Latin America and the Caribbean (ECLAC-UN), Santiago, Sep. 2019. Seminaire Travail en Economie Politique (STEP) at Sorbonne Paris 1, Paris, Jun. 2018. Workshop on harmonization of household surveys, fiscal data and national accounts at the Paris School of Economics, Paris, May 2018. COES-LSE Desigualdades conference at Universidad de Chile, Santiago, Nov. 2016.

Refereeing

Economics of Transition and Institutional Change. Empirical Economics.

Media Outreach

1. “Au Chili, deux pays coexistent au sein d’un même” Le Monde, Oct 5, 2019
2. “Rage against the system: From Chile to Lebanon, why the sudden wave of protests?” France 24 – The Debate, Oct. 22, 2019

4 Further Information

Research Interests

Income and wealth distribution, political economy, economic history, institutions, development economics.

Prizes and Scholarships

2014-2017: Contrat Doctoral, Paris 1 Panthéon-Sorbonne.
2009-2014: Bourse excellence major, AEFÉ, Campus France.

References

Facundo Alvaredo
Jérôme Gautié
Mark Stabile
Thomas Piketty